

Psychology Content Writing Internship - Writing Sample

Title: [Insert the title of your article]

Introduction:

Begin with an engaging introduction that introduces the topic and explains why it's important. Make sure to capture the reader's attention while providing context for what the article will cover.

Main Body:

- Subheading 1:

Discuss your first main point here. Use clear, concise language and back up your statements with relevant research or examples.

- Example, evidence, or statistic
- Explanation and analysis

- Subheading 2:

Discuss your second main point here. Try to maintain a logical flow and build on what you've discussed in the previous sections.

- Example, evidence, or statistic
- Explanation and analysis

- Subheading 3 (optional):

If applicable, add a third subheading to further expand on your points.

- Example, evidence, or statistic
- Explanation and analysis

Conclusion:

Summarize your key points, restate the importance of the topic, and end with a strong concluding statement. You can also add a call to action or suggest further reading if relevant.

Word Count:

No Limit

References (if applicable):

If you've used any external sources, include them here in a standard citation format. And should be plagiarism free.

Note - You can also add images but it is not necessary.